1. DECIDE

You choose which invoices to dispute. Start with the earliest deadline.

2. SEND THE LETTER

Use the attached templates and send them from your own email, before the “dispute by” date.

3. KEEP RECORDS

Save the carrier’s reply. If they say no, the FMC has other routes, including charge complaints.

SAMPLE: all invoices, amounts and the carrier are fictional. Feelet compares invoices with the text of the FMC billing rule (46 CFR part 541) and checks the math. This is not legal advice. You decide whether and how to dispute an invoice, and you send any dispute yourself. Not affiliated with the FMC or any carrier.
